Judges Supreme Court—Cyrus Newby, James Joyce.
U. S. Senator—Myron T. Herrick.

Columbus, O., August 9.—Such meagre reports as were received here today from yesterday's state-wide primary did not indicate any unexpected political upsets. The leaders of the two dominant parties will be Governor Frank B. Willis, Republican, and former Governor James M. Cox, Democrat. They won the nominations in their respective parties without difficulty.

The nomination for United States senator on the Republican ticket went to Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, by a good majority, his nearest opponent, Harry Daugherty, of Columbus, polling a comparatively small vote. Senator Atlee W. Pomerene was renominated by the Democrats. John J. Lentz, of Columbus, who made the race against Senator Pomerene, received a light vote. Contests for the Democratic nomination for attorney general and for the Republican nomination for auditor of state were the only enlivening features of the state primary. Until the official vote is counted, or more complete unofficial returns are received, it will be uncertain whether Joseph McGhee, of Jackson, or Scott Stahl, of Port Clinton, will make the race for attorney general on the Democratic ticket.

McGhee carried Franklin county three to one and also had a good lead in Cuyahoga county. On the strength of this vote in these two counties he claimed the nomination.

TRACY REFUSES TO CONCEDE DEFEAT

The big vote accorded Hayes M. Adams, of Sandusky, for the Republican nomination for state auditor was a surprise for the politicians, but Joseph T. Tracy, of Portsmouth, still claims nomination. The vote for Adams was attributed by some to the fact that his name headed the list on the ballot, as the names are arranged in alphabetical order. The "A's" on the ballot had the best of the vote throughout the primary, it was said.

Although some organization leaders are credited with having opposed the renomination of Lieutenant Governor John H. Arnold, of Columbus, he defeated his opponent, Abram W. Agler, with little difficulty. Agler received a two to one vote over Arnold in Hamilton county, but in other counties Arnold had big majorities which easily offset the Hamilton county result. E. J. Hopple, of Cleveland, was nominated as lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket.

DYE VALUED AT $70 A POUND

New York, August 9.—A circular issued here today by a dye importing firm quoting prices on dye stuffs brought to this country by the German submarine Deutschland shows that some grades of the product are valued at $70 a pound. These are the rarer colors not yet manufactured in the United States.

HUGHES TO SPEAK AT ST. PAUL

St. Paul, Minn., August 9.—Charles Evans Hughes, Republican nominee for president, is to deliver two addresses in the twin cities late today. Arriving here from Chicago, shortly before noon, he was to confer with the Republican state committee and leave at 3:30 o'clock for Minneapolis there to deliver an address at five o'clock. He will return to St. Paul for dinner and at 8:30 will speak at the Auditorium. He leaves for Grand Forks, S. D., at 10:30 p. m.

RAILROAD STRIKE AVERTED

New York, August 9.—The threatened strike of the 400,000 railroad employees of the United States was averted today when the railroad brotherhoods accepted a proffer of the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation to mediate their differences with the railroads.

Announcement of the acceptance of the offer was made by A. B. Garretson, head of the Conductors' Brotherhood, after it had been delivered by G. W. W. Hanger, a member of the board, following an appeal to that body to intervene, made today by the national conference of railroad managers.

Mr. Garretson said he had informed the board that the offer was accepted on the condition that its good offices are promptly exercised. The Federal Board was prepared to begin conferences with the respective sides to the controversy, before night, it was understood.

CLOUDBURST KILLS 100, REPORT: FATE OF C. & O. TRAINS UNKNOWN

(BULLETIN)

Huntington, W. Va., August 9.—Officials of the Acme Coal Company this afternoon denied that 100 residents of Acme, W. Va., a coal mining village, had been drowned when a cloud burst swept down the Cabin Creek Valley this morning. Rumors of large loss of life, however, were persistent here. Property loss in the valley, it is said, will exceed a million dollars. Six bridges on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway are reported to have been washed out and in a number of places the tracks are said to have been swept from the right of way. The Kanawha and Michigan and other roads in the valley also suffered heavily. Wire communication with the Cabin Creek Valley district is practically paralyzed.

Effort to get into communication with the stricken district was unavailing. Just as a connection was made with the telephone operator at Eskdale, she shouted into the phone: "I can't stay here to talk to you, I've got to leave right away."

Reports were received at Montgomery that at least one hundred persons had lost their lives, but confirmation was lacking there, as it was in Huntington and Charleston, where the same report was persistent.

Chesapeake and Ohio division offices here were unable to learn the fate of their trains in this district when the last wire went down at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

New York, August 9.—The epidemic of infantile paralysis broke all previous records here today. The plague killed 57 children during the 24 hour period ending at 10 a. m. One hundred and eighty-three new cases were reported to the health department.

DEATHS FROM EPIDEMIC BREAK ALL RECORDS

New York, August 9.—The epidemic of infantile paralysis broke all previous records here today. The plague killed 57 children during the 24 hour period ending at 10 a. m. One hundred and eighty-three new cases were reported to the health department.

GERARD ASKS AUDIENCE OF KAISER

London, Aug. 9.—"Berlin telegram state that the American ambassador, James W. Gerard, asked an audience of Emperor William in order to hand him an autograph letter from President Wilson, in which the president outlines his wishes concerning the feeding of the population of Poland." The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company wired today. The latter is believed to be of high political importance.

EXPLOSION KILLS TWO

Seranton, Pa., August 9.—Exploding gas in a shaft of one of the Pennsylvania Coal Company's collieries at Lukerman, Pa., today killed two miners and seriously burned three others.

80 MILLION TONS OF COAL IN YEAR TAKEN FROM W. VA. MINES

Charleston, W. Va., August 9.—West Virginia produced eighty million net tons of coal during the year which ended on June 30. This is the greatest amount produced in the history of the state.

Reports reaching here today were to the effect that a cloud burst along the Cabin Creek had done great damage to property. Trains were being held up on the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad by washed out bridges and traffic on branches was interrupted. It is not known whether there have been fatalities.

St. Paul, Minn., August 9.—A. B. Stickney, founder of the Chicago Great Western Railroad, died at his home here this morning, after an illness of four weeks. He had been declining in health for several years.

KILLED CAMELS AND DRANK THEIR BLOOD

London, August 9.—The Turkish army which was routed by the British at Romani, east of the Suez canal, suffered terrible hardships in their march across the desert, according to a Reuters Cairo despatch, quoting stories of Turkish prisoners. Lack of water was one of the principal causes of the suffering of the Turkish troops.

In some cases they suffered so frightfully from thirst that they killed their camels and drank the blood.

WHEAT TAKES BIG JUMP

Chicago, August 9.—At tip top prices of today's session of the board of trade, wheat showed an advance of 11½¢ a bushel over night. The market throughout the session gave evidence of great tension owing to millions of bushels in domestic crop losses being officially confirmed, and because disastrous further losses were indicated in Canada.

The market closed excited, 10½¢ to 11½¢ net higher, with September at $1.44½ to $1.44½, and December at $1.48 to $1.48½.

Chicago, August 9.—Wheat prices shot upward eight cents a bushel today at the opening of the wheat market. The December option touched $1.45 on first trading as against $1.37 at yesterday's finish.

Sensational crop damage confirmed by the government report was the cause of the extraordinary advance.

So much excitement ruled in the pit that transactions in many cases were three cents apart at the same instant. The initial range on December varied from $1.42 to $1.45. Jumps in the value of other options than December although not quite so severe. Taken as a whole, the market opened 5 to 8 cents higher than when relative steadiness was established and showed 5½¢ to 6½¢ gains as compared with yesterday's close.

In later dealings, the May delivery rose to the phenomenal price of $1.50 a bushel, an extreme ascent of 8¼¢ over yesterday's final figures, and 46½¢ up as compared with the price at the corresponding time a year ago.

After mid-day, the fever to buy grew more intense, and the market soared to 10¢ a bushel above yesterday's close, December wheat touching 1.47. At times the market appeared to be entirely bare of offerings. An incentive for the late demand was an estimate by a leading authority that owing to the increase of black rust the Canadian crop this season would be only 200,000,000 bushels, a shortage of 136,000,000 bushels under last year's total.

Just before the close a fresh bulge in the market brought prices up to nearly 12 cents advance in some cases. The new stimulus came from assertions that a large export business was in progress.

Minneapolis, Minn., August 9.—Minneapolis September wheat showed an advance of over 6½¢ today from the previous close, on the government crop report. The Winnipeg market for December wheat was up ten cents per bushel.

St. Paul, Minn., August 9.—A. B. Stickney, founder of the Chicago Great Western Railroad, died at his home here this morning, after an illness of four weeks. He had been declining in health for several years.

HARD BLOW DEALT THE AUSTRIANS

London, Aug. 9.—From seven to ten Zeppelins took part in the air raid early today, according to an official statement this afternoon. About 160 bombs were dropped and 23 casualties were caused, says the statement.

Rome, August 9.—(Via London)—Italian troops entered the Austrian city of Gorizia this morning, the war office announced today. Thus far, 10,000 Austrians have been captured.

British Advance

London, August 9.—A further advance by the British on the Somme front north of Pozieres was announced today by the war office.

Germans Gain A Footing

Paris, Aug. 9.—The Germans made violent attacks last night on the positions taken by the French north of Hemwood on the Somme front, during the last two days. The official French statement of today says these attacks were frustrated. The fighting continues.

On the Verdun front heavy fighting continued during the night for the possession of Thiaumont work. The Germans gained a further footing. The French held the outskirts of the work. In the village of Fleury the French made some progress.

Galicia Town Taken By Russians

Petrograd, August 9.—(Via London)—Announcement was made today by the war office that the Russians have occupied Tysmenitsa in Galicia, on the river Vorone.

On August 7, General Letchitzky's army took 7,400 prisoners, including 3,500 Germans and 63 machine guns.

ticket. The race for the two nominations for judges of the supreme court on the Republican ticket was close and from returns received today only James Joyce, of Cambridge was certain of nomination. Cyrus Newby, of Hillsboro, had a good vote, but was getting closely pressed by Louis Vickers, of Cleveland, and Augustus M. Summers, of Springfield.

HAD NO OPPOSITION

A. V. Donahue, of New Lexington, and James G. Johnson, of Springfield, had no opposition on the Democratic ticket for the nominations as supreme court judges.

On the Republican state ticket there was no opposition to Charles Q. Hildebrandt, secretary of state; Edward C. Turner, attorney general and A. W. Archer, treasurer of state.

Democrats without opposition were for Vic Donahue for state auditor and Chester E. Bryant, for state treasurer.

Election officials were showing more than usual apathy in sending in returns. Although the official count will not start until Thursday, election boards are expected to make unofficial returns immediately following the election to the Secretary of State. This afternoon only scattering returns had been received at Secretary Hildebrandt's office. These indicated no changes in the results as compiled from news dispatches.

At Democratic state headquarters this afternoon it was said that the race for Lieutenant Governor between Hopple and Earl D. Bloom, of Bowling Green, was waxing warm. Some politicians believed Bloom had received the nomination.

Returns received today indicated the nomination of the following congressional candidates:

TREMPER AND SCHAUSEIL THE SENATORIAL NOMINEES

The effort of J. A. Shriver, of Manchester to defeat Senator W. D. Tremper for renomination as senator from this district, failed signally, Tremper being renominated by a much larger majority than he had over Shriver two years ago.

In Scioto county Tremper received 1728 votes to 533 cast for Shriver, a majority of 1195 for Tremper. This is much better proportionately than Tremper received before.

In Pike county, which Shriver carried two years ago, Tremper got 495 this time and Shriver got 207, a majority of 288 for Tremper.

The vote in Jackson county was Tremper 797; Shriver, 779.

In Adams county the only available word was that Shriver would have considerably less of a majority than he had two years ago and that Tremper was running well in many precincts. Two years ago he had a negligible vote in Adams county. It was expected that Shriver would not have over 50 to 100 majority, if he had any at all. The indications therefore are that Tremper has carried the district by around 1500 majority. It will more likely be above rather than under that figure.

On the Democratic side there was a close contest between W. P. Haynes, of Jackson county, and George A. Schauseil, of Pike county, for the Democratic nomination, with indications that Schauseil had won out by a narrow margin.

Scioto county gave Haynes 322 and Schauseil 344, a majority of 22 for Haynes.

Pike county gave Haynes 238 and Schauseil 698, a majority of 460 for Schauseil.

Jackson county gave Haynes 389 and Schauseil 93, a majority of 296 for Haynes.

Adams county gave in 14 precincts out of 26, Haynes 236, and Schauseil 432, a majority of 216 for Haynes. It was not expected this ratio would be maintained in the other precincts, and Haynes would have around 100 majority, according to Editor E. A. Crawford at 3:30.

Haynes goes to Adams county with 949 votes and Schauseil with 1,035, Schauseil having 186 majority. On the estimated vote in Adams Schauseil is nominated.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., August 9.—Robert Grau, formerly a theatrical and concert manager, and one of the best known figures in the dramatic and musical circuits years ago, died yesterday at his home here of heart disease.

NEGROES FIGHT IN JIM CROW CAR, ONE KILLED

Brady Williams, one of a party of ninety negro laborers en route from Kingsport, Tenn., to Portsmouth, aboard C. & O. passenger train due here at 7:37 o'clock, was shot through the heart and instantly killed, and Will Taylor, perhaps fatally wounded during a free-for-all fight in the "Jim Crow" car they occupied at Russell, Ky., Wednesday morning.

The bodies of the two men dropped from the coach directly in front of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. building. A mail car between the colored coach and the next passenger car made it impossible for the train crew to reach the car occupied by the negroes to suppress the trouble until after one man had been killed and the other so badly wounded that he, too, will probably die. He was rushed to the C. & O. hospital at Huntington. The body of the dead negro was also turned over to the C. & O. authorities. A negro named Moore, who got on at Gallatinburg, is said to have done the shooting, and is still at large. A posse is pursuing him.

A number of eye-witnesses to the shooting were put off at Greenup and turned over to the authorities there.

District: Republican, H. E. Emerson; Democrat, Stephen M. Young.

THIRD DISTRICT

Dayton, O., Aug. 9.—Charles W. Dustin, Republican, and Warren Gard, Democrat, are congressional nominees for the Third district, including Montgomery, Preble and Butler counties.

1ST AND 2ND DISTRICT

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 9.—Nominations for congress: First district—Nicholas Longworth, Republican; Edward H. Brink, Democrat; second district—Victor Hinz, Republican; Stanley Bowdle, Democrat. There was no opposition in any of these contests.

SEVENTH DISTRICT

Springfield, Aug. 9.—With only partial returns available it is indicated that Congressman S. D. Fess, of Green county, has been renominated as the republican candidate for congress in the Seventh district, defeating former Congressman General J. Warren Keifer, of Clark county. Fess' margin is now so large that it is almost impossible for the official returns to defeat him. Mayor T. A. Bueley, of South Vienna, defeated W. O. Jackson, of Springfield, as the candidate of the republicans for state senator from the Eleventh senatorial district, according to partial returns.

Toledo, O., Aug. 9.—Incomplete returns from Lucas and Ottawa counties, comprising the Ninth Congressional District, assure the renomination of Isaac R. Sherwood, Democrat, over Charles A. Thatcher, by about 2200 plurality. Frank L. Mulholland, Republican, was winner in a field of six candidates. His plurality over W. W. Chalmers, his nearest competitor, approximates

2,300. A brother of the dead man came on through to Portsmouth with the party, which went to Harrisopville to work for Rinehart & Dennis, railroad contractors.

MR. YORK BUYS 100 TICKETS

Levi D. York, Wednesday, purchased 100 tickets from Officer Toni Albrecht for the match ball game between the police and River City Band boys. Mr. York's purchase is greatly appreciated by the officers.

CLODBURST DETAINS TRAIN

C. & O. Agent D. A. Grimes received a message Wednesday afternoon saying that a cloudburst on the Huntington division of the C. & O. had badly damaged the main track near Menden, east of Charleston, W. Va., and that No. 3 passenger train, due here at 2:10 p. m., would arrive shortly after four o'clock. The train was detained by way of Gayley, W. Va., to Charleston over the E. & N. railroad.

Result In Ironton

Ironton, August 9.—Indications are in the Tenth district that Robert M. Switzer was nominated for congress by a small plurality. John Corns, Ironton, carried Lawrence county by about 1500.

The anti-Johnson men captured

25 out of 34 central committee-men. The anti-Johnson men carried all of the county ticket but the offices of sheriff and probate judge.

Edwin Jones, Republican candidate for state central committee-man, received a majority of about 200 votes in Lawrence county.

Morrow Is Winner

D. Q. Morrow, of Hillsboro, was chosen state central committee-man at the republican primary for the Sixth district Tuesday, defeating E. R. Young, of Ripley, present incumbent. Morrow carried every county in the district with the possible exception of Brown, which is Young's home. He may have carried that county. In Pike county Morrow got 416 votes and Young got 212. In Scioto Morrow got 1170 and Young 748.

SENATE PASSES

LABOR BILL

Washington, D. C., August 9.—The senate late yesterday passed the bill to prevent interstate commerce in products of child labor. The vote was 52 to 12. The measure already passed by the house was brought to a vote in the senate upon the instance of President Wilson after the Democratic senate caucus once had decided to defer its consideration until next December.

Senators who voted against the bill were: Bankhead (Alabama); Bryan and Fletcher (Florida); Hardwick and Smith (Georgia); Overman and Simmons (North Carolina); Smith and Tillman (South Carolina); Williams (Mississippi); Democrats; and Oliver and Penrose (Pennsylvania), Republicans.

OPPOSITION TO PROGRAM GONE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—Effective opposition in the house to the senate's big naval building program, including four dreadnaughts and four battle cruisers for 1917, has given way before administration pressure, those favoring the more extensive plan, believed today. The test will come next Tuesday when the house votes on senate amendments.

Senator Swanson, ranking Democrat of the senate naval committee, declared all doubt was removed that the house would accede to the large building program, the three year continuing policy and the increased personnel provision.

The house was expected to adopt today the conference committee's report on the army appropriation bill and the measure then will go to the president. The senate approved the report yesterday.

Highland County

The vote in Highland county follows: Democratic, Cox, 806; Martin, 75; Sandles, 236; Roubush, 331; Stivers, 153; Turnipseed, 544; Pomerene, 692; Lentz, 251. Republican, Herrick, 550; Daugherty, 781; Dick, 179; state central committee, Morrow 1239; Young, 283.

EXPECT BREMEN

New London, Conn., August 9.—The submarine Bremen is expected to arrive at this port at any time according to the New London Day, this afternoon.

The Eastern Forwarding Company which is the American corporation for handling the traffic of the German submarines merchant line, it is learned, has leased for one year space on the new state pier for a large warehouse and this city will be the principal American terminal of that country.

12 KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Michel, B. C., August 9.—Twelve men are known to be dead today and several are believed to be missing as a result of an explosion last night in No. 3 mine. Lightning, which struck surface wires, conducting power into the mine is supposed to have caused the explosion.

THE FRENCH COPY BRITISH BOYCOTT

Washington, August 9.—A cable report summarizing the recent "blacklist" order of the French government, supplementing and practically duplicating Great Britain's commercial embargo against American and other firms under the "trading with the enemy" decree, has been received at the state department from Ambassador Sharp at Paris. The list of American firms affected by the order was not forwarded by the Ambassador, but press reports from abroad stated it does not greatly enlarge the British "blacklist."

The body will be shipped Thursday to Gray's Branch, Ky., where the funeral and burial will be held.

H. T. Clinkenbeard.
Director E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, of the public safety department, received a telegram Wednesday morning informing him of the death of an older brother, Herbert T. Clinkenbeard, aged 60, at Stuhenville, O.

Mr. Clinkenbeard was stricken with heart disease two weeks ago. He has been located in Stuhenville since January, being under contract to a firm there in the capacity of custom cutter. A strange coincidence in the lives of three brothers, namely the deceased and the late R. L. Clinkenbeard, of this city, is that all had been employed in Portsmouth at the same occupation during the past quarter of a century. H. T. Clinkenbeard had worked for both Will Lahmeyer and Hans and Schwartz. He leaves a wife, one son, Homer Clinkenbeard and four daughters, Corina, Lydia-Lee, Elizabeth and Anna Bert, all of New York city. All of the daughters are actresses. Elizabeth was leading lady and Lydia-Lee second in a "Paid in Full" company which showed at the Grand Opera house several years ago. Since then Elizabeth's hearing failed and she and Lydia-Lee are conducting a dramatic school of art in New York.

Walter R. Sikes
Walter Robert Sikes, aged 7 years, second son of Edgar F. Sikes, a shoemaker at the Selby factory, died at the family home, No. 1720 Oakland avenue, Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock, after a week's illness with diphtheria. Besides the grief-stricken parents the boy is survived by three brothers, Howard, George and Richard.

The funeral will be held from the home at nine o'clock Thursday morning with Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker in charge. Interment will be made in Greenlawn.

HUGHES CHARGES ADMINISTRATION WITH WASTE AND EXTRAVAGANCE

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Charles E. Hughes last night told an audience that crowded Chicago's great Coliseum—the hall where he was nominated for the presidency—what he would do if elected president of the United States.

Mr. Hughes charged the present administration with waste, extravagance and vacillation. He declared that it had not kept the country out of war, but that it had fought an ignominious war in Mexico and had withdrawn from that war ignominiously. He charged the administration with having brought the country nearer to participation in the European war than the country would have been had the administration "stood for American rights."

He declared that it was no more possible to expect tariff protection to American industries from a Democratic congress than it would be to get a "revival sermon out of a disorderly house."

The nominee assailed the administration also for its appointments to office and declared if elected he would appoint to office only men who were well qualified. Democratic expenditures for rivers and harbors were attacked by the nominee.

Smash Pork Barrel
"I propose that we shall stop this pork business," he said. "I propose that we shall have government in a business-like way. We won't have any more if I can stop it, of these kiss me and I'll kiss you appropriations in Congress."

The nominee said he stood for a "business like responsible budget, based on facts."

"I do not want any hot air in mine," he added.

The Democratic party, Mr. Hughes said, was approaching the idea of a protective tariff, "like a skittish horse to a brass band." In 1912, he added, these Democratic platforms had said in effect that a protective tariff was unconstitutional.

"They say in effect now that the European war has changed the constitution of the United States," he continued, "but do you think they are converted? Don't you trust them a little minute with protecting American industry. They haven't got it in their bones."

Mr. Hughes reiterated much of his Detroit speech regarding the administration's Mexican policy.

"It had no right," he said, "to commit this country to a course of conduct which landed Mexico in anarchy, left our citizens a prey to the ravages of revolution and made our name a word of contempt in a sister republic."

"We have gone forward," the nominee said, in speaking of the administration's Mexican policy, "with a determination to be destructive, not constructive, to destroy all they had."

As to the administration's foreign policy Mr. Hughes said:

"We have allowed our words to be beaten up by hesitation, by delay. We have somehow or other convinced the world that our talk is cheap."

New Americanism
"I propose that we have a new birth of American purpose and courage. We have no occasion to fear war in the assertion of those rights which all recognize and only respect us for maintaining. But if we are glib in speech, if we indicate that we are not ready to meet responsibility that our words imply, we are pushed a little further, until some fine day events occur which rouse an implacable resentment from one end of the country to the other. That is the danger of war."

"This administration has come nearer to landing us in war by its weakness than it would ever have had it stood for American rights and had let it be known that they would be defended."

"I believe that with our peaceful purposes, our just purposes, we have no occasion to be drawn into strife, if we are prepared, if we are dignified, if we show that we mean what we say. And I desire that as we look to the future we shall have American citizenship the proudest thing in the world; American administration as efficient as any in the world and American honor thought of by every American citizen."

Mr. Hughes spoke for nearly an hour. He entered a hall that was so jammed that even steel cross girders were utilized as seats. The audience cheered him for five minutes before he spoke. A brass band perched in a loft at the far end of the hall, played three stanzas of the "Star Spangled Banner," during the demonstration, but the music was lost in the volume of other sound.

The nominee left at 10:45 last night for St. Paul.

Transformation Complete.

Mr. Hughes spoke in part as follows:

"I come to this hall with peculiar emotions; here a little less than two months ago, the republican national convention nominated me for the office of president of the United States. I had not sought that nomination; I did not desire that nomination; I was contented with my work, and looked forward to the fulfilling of the allotted period of life, in work that was congenial and of highest importance to the American people, but when that call came it did not admit of an instant's hesitation. It meant but one thing—a summons to an obvious obligation; and, as I was, while on the bench, one hundred per cent a judge, I then became one hundred per cent a candidate."

"I desired, if the American people so willed, to dedicate myself to the cause of American government, not for partisan expediency, not for friends, not for political supporters, but for the American people solely."

"I hold the highest partisan expediency to be an administration of capacity of service to the country."

"If anything in this campaign is real it is that we are now facing the question whether we want words or whether we want deeds, whether we want that which is written and spoken, or whether we want American action in the interests of the American people, worthy for the American name, maintaining the American honor."

Must Be Efficient

"One of the very serious charges which must be held against the present administration is the charge of putting incompetent men into important positions. That is not for the benefit of Democracy. And, I, now in this place where I was nominated, without any regard to political future, say this: That if I am elected president of the United States, I propose that every man that I put in charge of an important department shall be a man eminently fit to discharge the duties of that department."

"I propose that in diplomatic service training shall count something. I propose that when a man goes from this country to represent the great American people in another nation—and I do not care whether it is a small nation or a big nation, for we want our influence in small and great—I propose that the man shall be a worthy representative to whom the people with whom he is associated will look with respect and esteem, seeing in him the efficiency of the greatness of the United States."

"I pointed out Monday night in my speech in Detroit the lamentable way in which our diplomatic service had been denied to men of experience in order to supply political jobs. I count that a capital offense."

"It is trading in the honor of the United States. Nobody has a right to pay political debts with the good name and the honor of the United States."

"In San Domingo we had to support a trust. We had taken over the management of the finances of that little people. We were there, the great United States, showing what this republic could do in a plain business proposition, and now let me read some familiar words, addressed to the general by the then secretary of state. He said this: 'Now that you have arrived and are acquainting yourself with the situation, can you let me know what positions you have at your disposal with which to reward deserving Democrats.' I don't know to what extent the knowledge of the Spanish language is necessary for employees. Let me know what is requisite, together with the salary, and when appointments are likely to be made."

Americans Ashamed
"Should not every American hang his head in shame that such a thing should occur in our highest department of government?"

"Now there is another side that I wish to speak of with respect to a business like administration. Four years ago the Democratic party in its platform accused the Republican party of waste and extravagance. They said that they were going to be economical. When they got in, they were more wasteful and more extravagant than any administration had ever been."

"I don't care, if I am elected president, what becomes of my personal political fortunes. I propose that we shall have government in a business-like way. We won't have any more, if I can stop it, of these 'kiss me and I'll kiss you' appropriations in Congress."

Columbia Tonight—Robert Mantell and Genevieve Hamper in "A Wife's Sacrifice"

Count De Briquet (Robert B. Mantell), in the Fox drama "A Wife's Sacrifice" is the innocent victim of a plot drawn by the charms of Gorgone (Genevieve Hamper). The acting art of Mantell the Great and "The Woman with the Most Beautiful Face on Earth" combine effectively with the dramatic skill of J. Gordon Edwards, the director.

The story begins by introducing Peppo (Stuart Holmes) and his sister Gorgone. The death certificates of Hannibal and Claudia Palmieri have fallen into their hands. Seeing their opportunity to secure ill-gained wealth they destroy the documents, and claim a fortune of twenty million francs left by the elder Palmieri.

Arriving at Paris they place a law firm in charge of their fraudulent case. Their last centime has been expended to make the journey, and their wits are taxed to maintain an existence until their claim can be adjusted.

Mantell's role, the Count de Briquet, is that of a wealthy diplomat. His wife, the countess, is portrayed by Genevieve Hamper, whose part is that of the wife who sacrifices her all for the good name of her dishonored mother, Madame de la Marche (Louise Rial).

When the count and countess return from India to Paris, Peppo and Gorgone have assumed the part of the dead Palmieris. They decide to cultivate the acquaintance of the De Briquets. Gorgone, now as Claudia, decides to ensnare the wealthy count and cause him to turn against his wife. Peppo as Hannibal is to aid her in the plot.

The story is one filled with many tense situations and having been taken in Sunny Jamaica, it is surrounded by beautiful scenes from that famous scenic island.

"man" is a Special Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature that is bound to take its place among the greatest motion picture plays yet produced. It is an 8-reeler and was photographed in the deep snows of Great Bear Valley, up in the San Bernardino mountains of Southern California.

Bear Valley is 9,000 feet above sea level and is reached by a dog road over which Rollin S. Sturgeon and his Vitaphone company journeyed to camp for six months while filming this photo play which has to do with the law of virtue in the great northwest.

There are thrills a plenty in this gripping drama of adventure and romance in the great snow world. Wm. Duncan, George Holt and Nell Shipman are the principals and their superb acting is in keeping with the greatness of the story and the grandeur of the production. The admission will be 15 cents for adults and the shows will run continuously from 1:00 to 10:00 p. m., or about every two hours.

Billy Burke and Charlie Chaplin
At Lyric Tomorrow.

Billy Burke, the biggest little star in picture land, is here tomorrow in the eighth story of "Gloria's Romance—The Mesh of Mystery"—brimful of excitement, and our funny friend, Charlie Chaplin, in a return sowing of his great comedy feature "The Fireman"—a riot of fun from start to finish.

Exhibit Theatre

"The Taking of Mustang Pete" is a one reel Selig western drama. This will be followed by a Lubin cartoon comedy, full of laughs. The third reel is a Lubin drama, entitled "The Day of Hayvee," a love story interestingly told in pictures of a pleasing nature. "Dimples and the Ring" is a screaming Vitaphone comedy featuring Lillian Walker, a dispenser of mirth for the Vitaphone company. This is a rattling good show to be looked on short notice. We are sorry to disappoint the number who wanted to see Thiney's African hunt pictures which were shipped to Cincinnati by mistake.

At The Arcana
Today is shown chapter 10 of the "Peg of the Ring" series. Doctor Lund arrives at the Mexican town only to find that Peg has been spirited away by Mrs. Lund's ruffians. When Flip tells him of Peg's disappearance, he seizes a horse and rides after the kidnappers. He overtakes and succeeds in snatching Peg from the ruffian who is carrying her on his saddle. He turns and gallops with her safely across the Mexican border and to American soil. They come up with a patrol of American troops.

"A Railroad Bandit" is a two reel Bison western number, featuring Lee Hill, Marie Walcamp, L. C. Shumway and others. A bandit organization, a box of gold bullion and some decidedly attractive Western mountain scenic effects are among the ingredients. The action is good and some stirring stunts of one kind and another are performed. The photography is unusually good. "Love Quarantined" is a Joker comedy.

At The Strand
"The Sheriff of Pine Mountain" is a Rex two part drama featuring Ben Wilson, Dorothy Phillips and others. This is a story of the northwest, in which a young sheriff collides with a gang of the kidnappers. The sheriff then makes up their difficulties. "Phoney Teeth and False Friends" is an L. K. comedy. A knockabout number, featuring Reggie Morris as a young dentist. His assistant creates trouble by mistaking the girl's father in the dental chair. "The False Gems" is an exciting Laemmle drama.

At The Temple
"A Law Unto Himself" is a five part Mutual masterpiece drama from the Centaur studios in which will be found a story that is interesting. Crane Wilbur does some very creditable work in this film which treats of how a French surveyor whose younger brother was lynched by a mob on a false accusation of murder, turns bandit, and avenges the wrong.

A CONTINUING FAILURE

Ohio had another primary Tuesday, with the usual result. A majority of both parties failed to vote and one-fourth of the electorate made most of the principal nominations.

Distinctly, generally, and in quite every test the primary has failed to work the blessings predicted of its inauguration. The bosses have not been overthrown, the people have not swarmed out to exercise the right of making their own choice and the nominees, on the whole, are no improvement over those under the old convention system. In fact, it is much to be questioned if they size up to an equal standard. The primary entails too much personal effort on the part of the candidate, too much work and too much expense, where there is anything like a contest. The net result is to make men of the best character and standing chary of entering for office.

Worst of all it seems to be a sort of parody on the boasted principle of popular government, the rule of the majority. In the last case, as we have said about one-fourth of the party voters made the nominations, yet the masses of the parties accept the vote of that one-fourth as binding and the average partisan will go to the polls next November and vote for the nominees, hugging to himself the delusion that they are the party's choice and they must be loyal to it.

PUTTING ON STYLE

When Billy Sunday goes to Boston next November, on his first phase of the devil around New England, he will be unfamiliar and stylish surroundings, and find, may be, the famous sawdust trail tabooed. Owing to the Hub's stringent building regulations, the erection of the old shackle frame tabernacle is not permitted and in its stead will be a rather imposing concrete and brick auditorium, costing, without the grounds, in the neighborhood of $40,000. It will be comfortable and as well as commodious, and amidst such novel surroundings, buttressed by a culture that accounts bluntness as rudeness, it is going to be interesting to note if the famous Bill will really be himself. It will be safe anyway to lay a small wager that he will, at least, administer a decided shock to Boston's conceit and complacency.

Sharks at Oyster Bay. Surely the man who eats 'em alive is not at home.

Oh well, anyway John Reilly celebrated his return to leadership in the Republican ranks by picking the winner for senator.

There wasn't even a thrill in the primary Tuesday. That is unless you could call the contest between Ben Bratt and Sandy Woodrow for committeeman a thriller. It was the real scrap in the whole county, the only case in which effort was made by the candidates to get out the vote.

One man told us Tuesday that voters were so indifferent that they wouldn't even vote when they were sent for. That's going some.

Judging by the lack of interest displayed in Tuesday's primary we would say that people are tired of this new-fangled instrument of reform and would prefer a return to the old convention system. And it is equally certain that some men who slide through at a primary would never get a "look-in" at a convention, because they have neither the ability nor the standing that would justify their selection.

Now that Mr. Herrick has been nominated we suppose that the local Daugherty bunch will proceed to deftly slip a noose around the neck of the Hon. Arnold Schapiro and proceed to drown him in the Scioto before the plums are ripe and ready for distribution. We plead with our newest statesman to take counsel with the late William S. Sellards who was the "original Willis man."

The board of health is doing a good work in insisting upon sanitary methods in the conduct of bakeries and other places that furnish food supplies. The board should play no favorites, but should make public its findings in each and every case that the public may know the conditions of bakeries which supply them with bread and cakes, especially if no attention is paid to warnings to clean up and stay clean. Publicity is a good thing to insure cleanliness.

A man by the name of Coffin has given fifty thousand dollars to the Prohibition party. May be he wants to have a bang-up funeral to fit the casket.

Seemingly to fit the situation nature mollified herself a bit, but the vote, well, it could have been larger and then had no occasion to brag of itself.

Seeing the majorities by which Cox and Willis won, it seems queer the other fellows were foolish enough to think they could make a run against them.

The youth who wears a sport shirt under the delusion that the public is interested in his Adam's apple has another guess coming, but his offense will probably be overlooked if he points to the kind of weather we have been having as an extenuating circumstance—Marion Star.

A BLESSING IN DISGUISE

EVERY LITTLE WILL HELP

We'll have to take back what we said in our first reference to the setting aside of August 24th as "good roads day" for the Scioto Trail. There isn't little to do to improve that part of it lying in Scioto county. Sad to say, there is much. The road, beginning some distance this side of Lucasville, is in a deplorable condition all the way to the Pike county line. It is badly cut up and full of bumps and chasms. Still, at that not a great deal of work is needed to put it in passable condition, not so much that if the adjoining land owners were to put a good day's work there upon material improvement would not be made. So let everybody turn out on the 24th and give his vigorous mite.

HEADACHES—DANGER SIGNALS

A headache is a common although unpopular disorder. Nearly everybody now and then disgraces himself with one. A headache is not a disease in itself. It is just a danger signal announcing shoals nearby. It is usually a sign of some functional disorder, something gone wrong.

Most headaches are preventable. The cause will usually be found if we will sit down and analyze our acts for the last 24 or 36 hours. It will frequently be found to be due to something we have eaten or drunk, causing slight digestive disturbances. Work in close, poorly ventilated rooms, worry, anxiety, eyestrain, and too close mental application are also frequent causes of headache.

If every one would play fair with himself and refuse to treat his headache until he has first made an honest effort to locate the real seat of trouble, and then would remove that cause and resolve to sin no more, there would be fewer drug fiends. To cure a headache do not try the drug route. Beware of the get well quick schemes. They are dangerous, particularly for weak hearts.

After you locate the cause, endeavor to apply the remedy in the opposite direction. If it is indigestion, give your stomach a rest for a meal or two. If it is lack of exercise and ventilation take a walk in the open air. Walk slowly at first and increase your speed a little as the pain subsides. See that your rooms or office are properly ventilated. Do not be satisfied with relieving a headache. Remove the cause.—Salt Lake Telegram.

Frank Lair and Harry Mittendorf are mighty fine fellows and it is too bad they always wind up in the also-ran class.

Carranza urges all Mexican officials to retrenchment and economy and yet, right on the heels of that he burns up 105,000,000 pesos of his own administration. No economy in that because the waste paper was worth more than its money value.

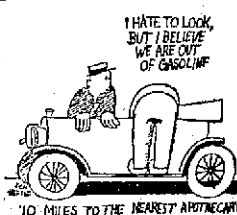

Yes, the women are going to improve our election. They, instead of whiskey, will use candy to get votes.

The Portsmouth, N. H., Times says large signs are going to be put up to facilitate motor traffic. The complaint in these parts is that it is too much facilitated.

Sizing the two up the Columbia State sees it is utterly impossible for Bill Taft to carry out his promise to get entirely behind Charlie Hughes, physically speaking.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

GASOLINE

Gasoline is a liquid which may be put snugly under the front seat of a motor car with the aid of a funnel and a five dollar bill, and which will animate the motor car several feet without further replenishing, everything else being favorable. At one time it was sold by grocers and was used mainly for cleaning white gloves and encouraging aviation among kitchen stoves; to-day it is sold to the nouveau-poor by multi-millionaires at little red fountains along the roadside—at rates that make champagne look as cheap as rain.

Gasoline will lift a man out of the deep, dusty channels that wind among skyscrapers and place him bodily among green fields and clean brooks. This is meant to sound poetic, but it can be interpreted literally by those who like their laugh better than their sob, i.e., many a man has trilled with gasoline and found himself, a few seconds later, sitting in the middle of a wet brook, several miles away, after the fashion of colored Sunday supplements.

Double header to-day. The next essay will be about birds.

BIRDS

Birds know best. (This is pretty far from gasoline.) Here is the world and here are people and here are birds. And birds seem to know. They are up at four o'clock in the morning saying what they know. All day they declare their ideas from the tree-tops. And all day, we (the people part of it) go to college and get an A.B., or this fragment of the alphabet or that, and try to find out as much as birds know, and somehow we can't. We stick our heads into prodigious volumes of text and soon have to wear specs. Trying to get some information and it isn't there.

The information seems to be in the tree-tops—but not down here.

Slippy Likes His Cousin

You CAN JUST IMAGINE that Slippy Attie-mouse was quite as surprised to see Tommy Tittle-mouse as Tommy was to see him. It had been so long since he had seen or heard of Tommy that it was not much wonder that Slippy thought he must have been killed, or at best must have run far away.

"Well, well, Tommy," said Slippy, when he had recovered from his first surprise. "Do you mean to tell me that this is really you? I had thought you must be dead! And to think I should see you in my own log!"

"Your own log?" asked Tommy, pricking up his two tiny ears till they stood straight and tall. "What do you mean?"

"In my own log," replied Slippy. "In my own log, you mean," corrected Tommy.

"Yes, in my log," agreed Slippy. "my own."

"I think we are mixed up," said Tommy, with a worried look in his eyes. "This log belongs to Mrs. Tommy and me."

"How can that be," asked Slippy, "when it already belongs to Mrs. Slippy and me?"

Tommy scratched his left hind foot and his right hind foot and then thoughtfully drew his tail through his front paws.

"A whole week!" said Slippy impatiently. "How Tommy did laugh at that! 'A whole week! And we've lived here more than a year!'"

"But I'll tell you something else," said Mrs. Slippy kindly, when she saw that the new-comers were afraid they might have to move. "This log is really bigger than we need. We hardly ever use this back entrance. Why don't you just stay right here? It's a good home I can tell you! And there's food enough in the garden for all."

So the Attie-mouse family settled down for a long stay.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Aug. 9.—Tomahawk, Wisconsin's most famous citizen has joined the ranks of the newly-weds. Perhaps you never heard of Tomahawk, but you have heard of H. T. Webster, the cartoonist, and it was in Tomahawk that he had the thrills that he has so popularized in his cartoons.

Webster was one of those bachelors who seemed to be absolutely immune but not long ago he met Miss Ethel Werts. She is a beautiful New York girl, a rattling good tennis player, and excellent swimmer and fond of motoring.

They slipped to the little church around the corner, and are now honeymooning at Camp Kennington, Maine. I came to New York with Webster many years ago after we had both sufficiently worried editors in the middle west.

He was just a little bit skittish about the big town but he had his years for nothing for he proved to be one of the cartoon hits of the decade.

I saw him the day before he took the Big Step. "Are you nervous about the approaching event?" I asked.

"Nervous?" he said, "quit kidding; I'm scared stiff. I know now they will simply have to carry me to the altar." And as Webster weighs 225 pounds and is over six feet tall, it must have been some job.

New York had a taste of what San Francisco passed through with the huge explosion last week. And for the first time Broadway lost its head. Diners rushed out of the cafes pell-mell and women fainted in the streets. Men who are blasé about most things figured that they were facing the Big Thrill and they grew ashen and trembling.

A little waiter in the Big Lobster Palace was the coolest one in the place. "What's the big idea," he told a diner. "What if it is the end, most of you folks have had a good time, why whine now? I'd not be a cry baby if this building tumbled in."

Everywhere there were broken windows. Along the wholesale district the wholesalers themselves were on guard actually playing pinocchio. Some of them looked unusually happy. Perhaps it was because it was their first night out for a long time.

Arthur Brisbane, who once made some snippy remark about the movies and was roasted by his employer's own paper, has now decided to become a screen actor. He is not to forsake the editorial chair of the Journal; he is just going to appear in one picture with Beatrice Fairfax. He confers with Beatrice in his own office and gives her some instructions and appears on the film for about 100 feet.

The actors are going to boycott the Broadway merchants who are responsible for the move on order along the Rialto. The police say they do not mind the sidewalk comedians cluttering up the curb but the merchants have been so persistent in their complaints that something had to be done and so the "move on" order became part of Broadway life.

Now the actors are retreating. Those who order them to move from in front of their places do not get any of their patronage. Many of the merchants are relenting and one enterprising man has a sign out in front of his shop which reads:

"Actors are permitted to loaf all day in front of this store. They can sleep there if they will bring their own beds. Actors with dogs will find a checking room in the rear of the shop. The dog biscuits there, however, are only for the dogs."

Get busy, men! Don't let the fact that you are temporarily out of a job make your whole future look black. Read TIMES WANT ADS.

Doc Kox's COLUMN

It's Up To You

Growl, and the way looks dreary; Laugh, and the path is bright; For a welcome smile Brings sunshine, while A frown shuts out the light.

Sigh, and you rake in nothing; Work, and the prize is won; For the merry man With the backbone can By nothing be outdone.

Hustle, and fortune awaits you; Slink, and defeat is sure. For there's no chance Of deliverance For the chap who can't endure.

Sing, and the world's harmonious; Grumble, and things go wrong; And all the time You are out of rhyme With the busy, hustling throng.

Kick, and there's trouble brewing; Whistle, and life is gay. And the world's in tune Like a day in June. And the clouds all melt away. —Unknown

Mr. Smith—What do you think of this? They say in some parts where our troops are it is a hundred and more in the shade.

Mrs. Smith—Dear me! Would you suppose it was so much hotter than in the sun?—Marion Star.

Teacher—Tommy, can you spell "fur?"

Thomas—Yes, sir, F-u-r.

Teacher—That's right. Now can you tell me what fur is?

Thomas—Yes, sir. Fur is an awful long way.—Cornell Widow.

No Trained Nurse

Mrs. Finicky (entering kitchen with newspaper): "Nora, a celebrated doctor says that brooms are full of microbes, so hereafter you'll have to give your broom an antiseptic bath every day."

Nora: "Share O'll not! Next thing ye'll be askin' me to give it massage treatments and hippermic injections, an' ye may as well understand right now that O'm no thinned nurse."—Boston Transcript.

One Thing Pleased Him.

If you would please a mother, praise her child; but do it with discretion. A visiting gentleman had submitted for some time to the attentions of the three-year-old boy of his hostess, but at last he became tired of having his whiskers pulled and his ears trodden upon.

"Madam," said he, "there is one thing about your charming little boy that especially pleases me."

"And what is that," inquired the smiling mother.

"That he isn't a twin."—New York Globe.

Sounded Suspicious.

"Young man," said the county counselor to the reporter, "you have done the irreparable harm."

"What have I done?" asked the bewildered reporter.

"I got in largely on a temporary platform, as you may recollect."

"Yes, sir."

"And you speak of me in the paper as 'drinking my coffee with gusto.' It will take me half a lifetime to get it out of the heads of my constituents that gusto isn't some kind of alcoholic beverage."—New York Globe.

Louis Cross-Eye.

"I once entered a London shop," said a collector of antiques, "in search of curios. The salesman directed my attention to a dilapidated chair. 'That there chair,' he informed me saucily, 'was the property of Louis Cross Eye, the king of France.'"

"Louis Cross Eye," I exclaimed, why, man, I never heard of such a person!"

"Well, there was one, sir," said the salesman, and he pulled out a packet marked "Louis XI."

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Aug. 9.—Gains of 2 to 6 points in leading rails, with similar advances in prominent specialties, attended today's encouraging industrial developments.

Far from being adversely affected by yesterday's unfavorable crop report the market opened today with a general show of firmness, followed by a pronounced strength. Munitions, equipments, motors and Mexicans were materially better, with further gains in shipping issues. International paper preferred added another substantial gain to its recent advances in connection with dividend prospects, and United Clear Stores advanced 4 points on reports of an increased disbursement.

Industrial alcohol rose two points and rails, including Grangers and Pacific were measurably higher.

Marines led all other specialties during the forenoon, trading in the preferred stock which was subject to much profit taking, far exceeding the combined dealings in half a dozen other active issues. Marine preferred made an extreme gain of 1 1/2; with only a small fraction of the common, but Atlantic Gulf and West Indies rose to a new high record of 51.50, which was unusually dull and a trifle heavy at the outset, made some headway later, but rails were inclined to yield, the Harbormans, Alchison and Baltimore and Ohio falling under yesterday's final prices. Extreme dullness prevailed at mid-day. Bonds were irregular.

The market was almost hazy in the final hour of announcement of the acceptance of mediation by the railway union. The closing was strong.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Excited trading and advice of more than a bushel in the value of wheat resulted today from the United States government report showing that the huge crop losses of late had been generally under estimated.

Dealers gave chief attention to the fact that the yield this season was a little

quotations which varied from 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents higher, with September 5 1/2 to 5 1/2 and December 5 1/2 to 5 1/2, were followed by temporary get backs from the top side of the range, but in some instances 4 1/2 additional upturns.

The close was exciting at 10 1/2 to 11 1/2 cents not advance, with September

5 1/2 to 5 1/2, and December 5 1/2 to 5 1/2 to 5 1/2.

Corn developed independent strength

owing to the bulk of the government report as to the corn crop. After opening 4 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents higher, the corn market eased off to a slight extent. The close was strong at 4 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents not advance.

Oats mounted with other grain. Advances, though, were not of unusual

Herrick Carries Scioto County By 96, Gilliland Wins By 6

Will Take Official Vote To Decide Who Wins In The Contest For Probate Judge

Unofficial returns from the fifty-eight precincts in the city and county, show a total Republican vote of 2,505, and Democratic vote of 878, cast in Tuesday's primary in Scioto county.

The two contests in which the most interest was centered were the United States Senatorial race and the Probate Judgeship on the Republican ticket. A total vote in the county gives Hon. Myron T. Herrick a majority of 96 over his nearest opponent, Hon. Harry M. Daugherty, for United States Senatorial honors. A majority of six is given Nate B. Gilliland over the present incumbent of the probate court office, Judge Thomas C. Beatty.

WILLIS GETS HANDSOME VOTE

On the Republican ticket, Frank B. Willis received a handsome majority of 1,921 over his nearest opponent. The vote stood Willis, 2,155, and R. A. Mack, 234.

In the race for lieutenant governor, the present incumbent of office, John H. Arnold, received a majority of 911 over A. W. Agler. The vote was Arnold, 1,485, and Agler, 574.

TRACY IS GIVEN A FINE VOTE

Joseph T. Tracy, a former Portsmouth resident received a tremendous majority over his nearest opponent for the nomination for state auditor. The majority was 1,241. Tracy received a total of 1,493 in the county and his nearest opponent, H. M. Adams, 252.

James Joyce, candidate for the Republican nomination for judge of the supreme court, received a majority of 277 over Cyrus Newby. Joyce received a total of 1,029 and Newby, 752. Both men received good majorities in Scioto county, against three other men.

The same board of county commissioners was re-nominated, according to the unofficial returns from the county. The vote stood: George H. Hill, 1,730; Thomas W. Watkins, 1,666; Chas. E. Worley, 1,574, and Frank B. Lair, 1,078.

DODDS LANDS AN EASY WINNER

Gilbert F. Dodds, deputy county treasurer, received a good majority over his opponent, Harry H. Mittendorf. The majority was 811. Dodds received a total of 1,574 and Mittendorf 763.

Nate B. Gilliland received a majority over Judge Thomas C. Beatty of 6. The vote was Gilliland, 1,269, and Beatty 1,263.

In the county the candidates for nomination on the Republican ticket without opposition received handsome votes: C. G. Hildebrandt, secretary of state, 1,777; W. R. Archer, state treasurer, 1,709;

COX HAD LITTLE OPPOSITION

James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for governor, received a handsome majority over his two opponents, getting 762 more votes than his nearest competitor. The vote stands: James M. Cox, 801; J. C. Martin, 35, and A. P. Sandles, 42.

For lieutenant governor, E. J. Hoppie led a field of four competitors. He received a majority of 145 over his nearest opponent. The total vote was: E. J. Hoppie, 380; D. L. Sutter, 63, and G. W. Tooll, 36.

T. R. Snyder was the favorite in Scioto county for the Democratic nomination for secretary of state. He received a majority of 112 over J. H. Newman, his nearest opponent. The total vote was: C. F. Antenen, 95; W. D. Fulton, 112; C. O. Meekison, 25; T. R. Snyder, 303; J. H. Newman, 191, and W. A. Weygandt, 41.

In the race for attorney general, Jos. McGhee was the favorite, receiving a majority of 452. The total vote was: Jos. McGhee, 544; W. J. Schwenck, 92, and Scott Stahl, 66.

M. H. Donahue received 522 votes for the Democratic nomination for judge of supreme court and James G. Johnson, 364.

Atlee Pomerene, present United States senator received a big majority over his opponent J. A. Lentz for the United States Senatorial nomination. The vote was Pomerene, 595, and Lentz, 147.

A. G. Turnipseed received a plurality of 57 votes over his nearest opponent for the Democratic nomination for representative to congress from the Sixth district. The vote was: W. F. Roubush, 247; E. B. Stivers, 174 and A. G. Turnipseed 334.

Considerable surprise was expressed by many over the result of the unofficial returns on the nomination for the Democratic county commissioners. The returns give the nomination to John P. Addis, Burle Burke and George Jenkins. The vote was: Addis, 523; Burke, 476; Egbert, 475 and Jenkins, 492, Egbert losing by one vote on the unofficial returns. Those who did not have opposi-

French Gain In Somme Battle

Paris, Aug. 9.—Notable gains have been made by the French in the Somme battle, according to the official statement issued by the war office last night. In two days they have carried German trenches along a front of more than three miles and a half, to a depth of three hundred to five hundred metres.

In the Verdun sector they have succeeded in regaining a foothold in the Thiaumont work.

Foreshadows Surrender

London, Aug. 9.—A proclamation foreshadowing the surrender of Lemberg, capital of Galicia, was issued by the governor of the city on August 4, says an Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Bucharest. On the same date, the dispatch adds, the evacuation of the city by the civilian population was ordered.

The proclamation declared the Austrians would return shortly to wrest Lemberg from the Russians.

British Continue Pursuit of Turks.

London, Aug. 9.—Pressing the advantage won by the defeat of the Turks who attacked the British forces near the Suez Canal, the British have driven back the Turks to a line fifteen miles east of Katia, according to an official statement issued here today.

Turks Capture Russian Position

Constantinople, August 9.—(Via London)—Turkish troops yesterday captured from the Russians the Armenian towns of Bitlis and Mush, it was officially announced today by the Turkish war office.

Charles M. Caldwell, prosecuting attorney.

Dr. C. F. Mitchell, coroner.

To Repeat Play

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Dear Dolly—
I wish you would tell me what will take mildew out of blue serge.
Reader,
If soap and water won't take it out you will probably have to dye the skirt the same shade or a darker blue.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me if 14 inches from the floor is too short to wear my dresses, as I am a girl of thirteen years. I am in the seventh grade at school. Do you think I am very far advanced? Will you please tell me a very nice way to fix my hair? How is my writing and my spelling?

WANT-TO-KNOW
Fourteen inches from the ground is about the proper length to wear your dresses. You are getting along fairly well at school. Wear your hair braided and tie a big ribbon bow on top of your head. You may fasten it at nape of your neck with a barrette or another ribbon bow. Your writing and spelling are both good.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me a nice present for my grandma's birthday? Will thank you in advance.

ANNA BELLE.

If you can sew or crochet you might make her something, such as a fancy apron, shawl, handkerchief, or a shawl. If not, you might buy her some kind of a present. Why not get your mother to find out what she needs or would like to have.

Dear Dolly—Is a person with red hair considered a blonde or brunette? MARGIE.

A blonde.

Dear Miss Wise—I want to ask you for what purpose are the mail boxes at the N. & W. station. Of course I know they are to put letters in, but the general public believes mail put in those boxes is taken out and put on out-going trains, and for that reason use them in preference to the post-office, thinking the letters will get to their destination sooner. Now, Dolly, the people are very much mistaken, and I think they ought to be told on what trains, if any, this mail is put on. I know from experience that no mail is put on No. 15 out of any of these boxes, for I put an important letter in the box on the north side of the station one afternoon and stood by the box to see if it was put on the train, and it was not. Neither were about 50 other supposedly important letters which an attaché of the station, or post-office, took out of the box and began stamping just as 15 pulled out. If 15 doesn't carry mail, the public should know it.

A READER.

The boxes are there for the benefit of the general public. The mail clerk on all N. & W. trains is supposed to get off the train and take the mail out of these boxes. If he fails to do so he should be reported to the post-master.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl eighteen years of age and I consider myself very pretty. I am very much in love with a man 20 years of age, but mother considers him entirely too old. I do not go to school. Do you think I am too young to think of love? Now, Dolly, tell me the truth. I would like to get married. How should I fix my hair? Are high heels shoes going to be worn this winter? Dolly, I would like to join the movie stars. What do you think about it, and would you please tell me how I could become one? I think I understand it pretty well. Will the dresses be worn as short this winter as they are this summer. CURLY LOOKS.

The boy is not too old for you, but you are too young to think of getting married. Wear your hair any way it is becoming, either in a psychic knot, or done high on your head. High and low-heeled shoes will be worn this fall and winter. There are so many experienced movie stars in the field that an amateur wouldn't have a ghost of a show, so you might as well get the movie bug out of your head and leave room for something else. The dresses will be a little longer, according to the fashion journals, but many will continue to wear them as short as they did this summer.

Dear Miss Wise—I am eighteen years of age and am engaged to a young man twenty-four years of age. But my mother objects to me going with him, because when he comes to see me he don't want to go home until away late. Now, Dolly, I think 9:30 is long enough to stay. What finger are you supposed to wear the engagement ring on. And also, what kind of a wedding dress would you suggest, and where would be a nice place to spend our honeymoon? Thanking you in advance, I remain,
DAFFODIL.

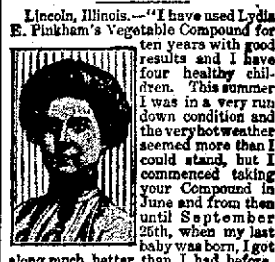

You are right to see that he goes home at a reasonable hour. The engagement ring is worn on the third finger of the left hand. I think a lake trip would be nice, if you expect to get married during the hot weather, if not you could go East or South, or anywhere you like. It all depends on how much money you have to spend on a trip. It isn't necessary to go on a honeymoon if your husband-to-be cannot afford it, or if you need the money to furnish your future home.

Dear Dolly—I have a daughter 18, very pretty. She insists on going out with boys to the moving picture shows, etc., but as I consider her much too young I will not give my permission for this. However, I have found that she goes anyhow, after telling me she is merely going to a girl friend's house. What would you do if you were in my place? A MOTHER.

If you continue in your present course I am afraid you will bring great unhappiness upon yourself. It is only natural for your daughter to want to have a good time and at her age to want to entertain her boy friends. If you do not permit her to entertain these friends at home, she may persist in meeting them elsewhere in spite of all that you can do. It is your duty to meet her friends. Let her bring them to the house; then you can judge their fitness and also keep her from deceiving you.

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with the most successful results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very best weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I received very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old and feels confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOY, 1265 North Gullick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloy's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Delicious!
That is the likely comment on pie made with

First of all, pie properly made with Crisco looks tempting. The crust has a rich, flaky appearance that puts a new edge on the appetite no matter what dainties have gone before. Then, it is so tender that it breaks at a touch of the fork. Even the under crust which becomes tough so easily, cuts as readily as the upper crust. Finally, it tastes rich, yet delicate; fresh, palatable, delicious in every sense.

SOCIETY

The home of Mrs. T. E. Lindsey, 414 Court street, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, this afternoon, at half after 1 o'clock when her attractive daughter, Clara D. Lindsey and Mr. Chas. R. Spears, employed at the Portsmouth Engine Company, were married in the presence of the immediate relatives. Rev. J. W. Dillon officiated with the impressive Methodist Episcopal rite. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and white roses, ferns and sunflowers. The bride was attired in a pretty gown of white net built over white tulle with a beautiful corsage bouquet of bride roses. After the ceremony delicious pink and white ice cream and cake was served at a beautifully adorned table. An exquisite French basket of pink roses and maiden hair ferns adorned the center. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a three weeks visit to Cleveland, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other places of interest. After which they will return to Portsmouth to make their home with the bride's mother. She wore a handsome suit of sand color trimmed in blue with hat and shoes to match. The bride in an attractive and popular young woman and for the past two years has been teaching in the third grade at the Fourth street school. The groom is a fine young man who has spent the past three years in Portsmouth and is the son of Mrs. Ida Spears of Maysville, Ky.

WEST END NEWS

WEST END TAKES STEPS TO GET BETTER LIGHTING

The West End Improvement Association, at a meeting held Tuesday night, decided to inaugurate a vigorous campaign towards lighting Second street, from Chillicothe street to Market street.

The Association officers and members held that it was best to concentrate efforts on one thing at a time and thereby accomplish desired results so that for the present the lighting proposition will take precedence over all other matters under consideration.

Messrs. Frank White, L. C. Pool and Dr. E. O. Jackson were appointed a committee to interview property owners relative to placing lights in front of their homes and business houses similar to the sample light recently installed in front of the Charles Barlow plumbing store.

These lights will cost $25, while it is estimated that the maintenance will not cost more than one cent per hour.

The Association also decided to assist in facilitating the lighting of the new bridge and West Side roads. Messrs. Sam Wise and Paul Esselborn were appointed as a committee to wait upon the county commissioners and urge that these improvements be made as soon as possible.

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Portsmouth woman says:

Mrs. Harry Daulton, 318 Eleventh street, Portsmouth, says: "I think a cold brought on kidney trouble in my case. I had a severe pain in the small of my back and found great difficulty in doing my housework. The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. My feet swelled so badly that I couldn't put on my shoes and I had puffy spots under my eyes. I doctored and used several medicines with no relief. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me."

Employs Night Shift For Over A Year

Local Plant Manufacturing 5000 Gross Laces Each Week

One of the busiest manufacturing plants in the city at present is the Mitchell manufacturing plant, Eighth street. On May 8, 1915, the plant started working a day and night shift and since then the two shifts have been working daily in the shoe string department.

The company still has a number of orders ahead and the plant will be kept running at night for some time. An average of 5,000 gross laces are manufactured each week, this being computed on 36 inch laces. As all laces are not that long, it is estimated that over 5,000 are turned out.

Although no war orders are being filled, a large number of laces are being exported to foreign countries. In the shoe lace department 75 people are employed on each turn. All told about 350 people are employed, this includes the shoe lace and underwear departments. In the lace department one shift works from six a. m. till 2 p. m. and the second shift works from 2 p. m. till 10 p. m.

The company is having trouble at the present time in securing experienced girls to operate power machines used in the underwear department, and for this reason work in this part of the factory is not moving along as fast as in the shoe string department. The past year has been one of the most prosperous for the Mitchell Manufacturing Company.

Centrals Clinch Pennant
By defeating the Grays Tuesday the Centrals clinched the pennant in the Junior League for 1916. It was a one-sided contest in which the Centrals batted the ball hard, securing 27 clean hits. The score by innings:
Centrals 332 053 313—23
Grays 031 000 000—3
Batteries: Bradford and Haag; Dever and Bickel.

Reds Defeat Evangelicals
Hewitt's "Reds" walked away with the Evangelicals Tuesday 12 to 2. Backus had the "Evan" boys eating out of his hands all the way through, pitching great ball. Wolfe pitched winning ball for the first four innings, but weakened in the last inning. The game was called in the eighth on account of rain. The score by innings:

Reds 000 282 00—12
Evangelicals 010 100 10—3
Batteries: Backus and Milliken; Wolfe and Haggerty.

Next Tuesday's Games
The Junior League will come to a close on next Tuesday with the following games: Centrals vs. Reds; Evangelicals vs. Grays. There will be a nice scrap on for second place honors.

Big Debate On Friday
The big debate scheduled for Friday evening is attracting lots of interest. It will be pulled off at Trinity church between teams from troops 1 and 2. Every other debating team in the Scout debating league has been eliminated except these two. "Cyclone John" Naively will represent troop 1 and Russell Williams troop 2. The public is cordially invited. The debate will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Boy Scout League Games Saturday

No games of the season will attract more interest than those to be played in the Scout League Saturday. If the Athletics can win or else if the Kendall Avenue lose, the Athletics can clinch the 1916 pennant. The first game will be a regularly scheduled game between the Tigers and the Kendall Avenue. The second game will be a postponed game between the Athletics and Kendall Avenue. The East End team, which is one game ahead, will rest on the coming Saturday. In the first game Fortner, the lad who has been pitching such great ball for the Tigers, will be on the mound for his team, and Lewis will toss them over for the Champs. In the second game Hudson will pitch for Kendall Avenue, and Moon, the Athletics' star heater, will work hard to clinch the pennant for his team. The first game will start promptly at 1 o'clock.

Ten Leading Sluggers
The ten leading sluggers in the Boy Scout league this week are as follows: Gehres, 458; Huislet, 431; Baggs, 419; I. Hudson, 395; Stuart, 388; Blake, 386; Kent, 384; Moon, 387; H. Hudson, 373; Wallace, 369.

Thursday's Games
Two games will be staged on Thursday between the All Stars, Peerless league pennant winners, and a picked team from this league. Taylor will pitch the first

HATES CHICKENS AND COWS TOO

Woman's Story Will Hold Interest for Thousands of People Everywhere.

"I hate the cows and chickens," said Mrs. Eta Edwards, of 310 Mill street, Lockland, O., in paraphrase of a popular song of the cabarets.

"I have lived on eggs and milk for so long that I just can't look at a hen or a cow with friendly eyes," she explained laughingly. "When one's diet is restricted to the products of our friends of the barn yard for weeks and then months, it is like suddenly stepping into a little paradise of content to find all of the good things of former days on your own bill of fare."

Mrs. Edwards' story will hold interest for thousands of men and women who would welcome, as she did, freedom from diet.

"I have long been a sufferer from stomach trouble," she explained. "I paid in pain for every meal I ate. There was the daily headache that appeared soon after breakfast, and stayed for lunch and supper. My sleep, after the hours of suffering, was broken and gave me no real rest. I had no energy, was tired all the time, and life was just long days of discontent."

"In the hope of improving I began the diet of boiled milk and boiled eggs. And I was faithful. For weeks I kept this diet and I did improve some under it, but I was not being cured, I realized. "Now my stomach is a great deal better. I can eat almost anything without ill effects. I am too thankful to depart from plainly cooked food yet, however. But my appetite is good, my sleep is sound and refreshing, and my housework is no longer an irritating, difficult task."

"The reason I have taken Tanlac, the Master Medicine. So why should I hesitate to recommend it to anyone and everyone who suffers as I did?"

Throughout the country there are more than 1,000,000 people who will say as does Mrs. Edwards, that there is no medicine that acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys or catarrhal affections, or is so good a tonic, appetizer and invigorant as Tanlac, which is now being introduced in Portsmouth at the Fisher and Streich Pharmacy.

BOY RUN DOWN

An accident to his young son Monday, and the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Osborne, of No. 205 Front street, this city, has caused John H. Osborne, of Cincinnati, a former Portsmouth man, to postpone his intended removal to San Francisco until some time in September.

The Cincinnati Enquirer had the following account of the accident which befell the Osborne boy:

"John Osborne, 8 years old, 27 East Court street, was run down by an auto truck in front of the billiard hall of Robert Welsh, 1011 Vine street, yesterday afternoon, but, despite internal injuries, managed, with the aid of eye-witnesses, to reach his home."

"The boy was crossing the street, when he noticed a car approaching. He got out of the way of the car, but inadvertently stepped in front of the auto truck and was hurled to the pavement, a front wheel passing over his abdomen. He was carried into a drugstore. Whimpering a little, but plucky, he insisted on being taken to his home."

"Physicians of the Osborne family were unable to determine last night the extent of the boy's injuries, but he was suffering great pain. "According to witnesses of the accident, the driver of the auto truck, which is owned by Lloyd Bros., wholesale druggists, made heroic efforts to avoid running down the boy."

The Cincinnati Times-Star published a fine picture of the plucky lad, showing him in his rompers. Despite his injuries, he insisted upon being taken to his home."

Thought Prisoners Were On A Visit

Because Nora Grant and Martha Holloway, street walkers, wore their "glad rags" in accompanying Police Chief Henry Clark to Cincinnati Tuesday, caused them to be mistaken for visitors upon their arrival at the workhouse. Supt. Fred Bader happened to be at the entrance to the workhouse when the chief arrived with the two young women. He promptly called the matron having charge of the female department. She prepared to show the young women about the building, and great was her surprise when Bader halted her telling her the girls were to be incarcerated. The girls are rather good looking and were dressed better than the average women received at the institution.

HAY FEVER VICTIMS SHOULD TRY THIS SIMPLE TREATMENT

Hundreds of people in this locality have tested NOSTRIOLA BALM for Hay Fever, Rose Cold, Nasal Catarrh, Croup, Sore Throat and kindred affections, and all speak highly of the treatment.

NOSTRIOLA quickly reaches the sore, inflamed linings of the air passages, soothes and strengthens them and thus an attack of Hay Fever with those dreadful spells of sneezing, wheezing and weeping, is easily avoided. Ask your druggist about NOSTRIOLA and get a small tube if you want a pleasant surprise.

DAUGHERTY ORGANIZATION WILL RALLY TO HERRICK

Now that the primary fight is over the Daugherty men of this county extend hearty congratulations to the winner, Hon. Myron T. Herrick, and hail him as next Senator from Ohio.

"So far as I know, there has been no ill feeling of any kind between the Daugherty and Herrick supporters, the campaign here having been remarkably free from offensive personalities."

A hard fight, however, was waged in this county by both sides, as is clearly shown by the fact that at this time it is still in doubt as to whether Herrick or Daugherty will carry the county—and the plurality of either man will be extremely small.

"There are no sore spots on the Daugherty supporters, and it is certain that Mr. Herrick will receive no stronger support in the Fall election than that which will be cheerfully accorded him by the Daugherty followers—who were Republicans first and Daugherty men second—and there is no question but that Mr. Herrick will receive a record majority in this county at the Fall election, over the Democratic nominee for Senator.

Now that the primary is over, and all contests within the party settled, all Republicans no matter who they supported in the primary, will unite in strength to return to power the Republican party in National affairs, and to retain the present Republican administration in state affairs.

SAYS BAKERY IS O. K.

The Times has been asked to print the following:

"We, the undersigned citizens and merchants of New Boston, have called at the Jones bakery unexpectedly and found conditions there sanitary, doors and windows screened, very few flies and conditions in general good.

TURNIPSEED IS DECISIVE WINNER

Hon. A. G. Turnipseed, of West Union, lawyer and farmer, won the Democratic nomination for congress in the Sixth district, over a field of two opponents, Hon. F. R. Roubush, of Clermont county, and Hon. E. B. Stivers, of Brown county. Turnipseed carried every county in the district with the exception of Brown county, which was carried by Mr. Stivers by an estimated ma-majority of 250. Turnipseed was second in that county and Roubush third.

Figures from most of the counties were not available at press time, the count not having been completed.

In Scioto county Roubush got 247, Stivers 174 and Turnipseed 334, a majority of 51 over his nearest competitor.

In Clermont county the vote had not been counted out, but it was stated by the clerk of the board of elections that Turnipseed would have about 100 majority over Roubush while Stivers was a poor third.

In Pike county Roubush got 192, Stivers 134 and Turnipseed 729.

In Highland county the vote was not tabulated but Judge O. H. Hughes, who had been following the vote closely, telephoned to Mr. Turnipseed that he had carried the county by a decisive vote and that Stivers would probably run second to him.

In Adams county Mr. Turnipseed will have a majority over his nearest competitor of at least 400, probably more.

In Brown Stivers has a majority of at least 250 and possibly a little more than that. Turnipseed is second and Roubush is third.

Turnipseed has a comfortable margin and has made a remarkable race. Commenting upon the

USING UP VITALITY

The struggle for success uses up vitality in America at a greater rate than any other thing. Fighting to keep away from the poor-house we shorten the distance to the grave.

Especially in middle age, at forty or thereabouts, do we become impressed with the necessity of laying up a competence and with that feeling in three comes worry, nervous breakdown, neurasthenia. The entire system feels the result of the nervous strain. The digestion resents things that it accepted before, the heart palpitates on slight exertion, the muscles of the back ache after a day's work. Your blood is thinner and not so bright a red.

When these things occur, whether you are forty or forty, you need a tonic. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills suit most people's need because they are non-alcoholic and they really build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. They are useful for growing children and for men and women whose nervous energy has been overtaxed.

Your druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box, six boxes $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for free booklet on the blood and nerves.

Extra 385 westbound in charge of Conductor T. J. Fallwell and Engineer R. G. Wilson derailed one ear while pulling into the Portsmouth yards Tuesday afternoon, caused by a broken axle.

Portsmouth wreck cars were called and the track was cleared in twenty minutes.

Caught By Rod; Man Is Dragged By Train

Chester Scouden, laborer at the Union Furnace at Ironton, had a narrow escape from being ground to death under the wheels of a freight train Tuesday afternoon. Scouden, who the train crew claims was intoxicated, crawled under a cut of cars on a siding at Union Furnace, and was almost asleep when yard engine 794 backed into the switch and coupled onto the cars.

Luckily a rod underneath a car caught his clothes and dragged him along the middle of the track and kept him from getting underneath the wheels. His yells attracted the train crew, who stopped the train before he was seriously injured. His back and side were severely bruised. Yardmaster H. D. Shelton called the company surgeon, Dr. Dan Grey, who attended Scouden at the Union Furnace office.

COX AND WILLIS HEAD TICKETS; POMERENE, HERRICK WINNERS

Arnold Is Renominated;
Hopple Selected To Be
Cox's Running Mate;
Adams Leads Tracy In State Auditor's Race

Columbus, August 8--With all doubt removed as to the successful candidates for the nomination for the major offices of governor and senator in yesterday's state primaries, attention centered today on the question as to who were the nominees for congress and for the minor state offices and as to what the final vote would be.

For the United States senatorial nomination Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, and Senator Atlee Pomerene, of Canton, easily defeated their opponents on the Republican and Democratic tickets respectively. Governor Frank B. Willis, of Ada, was renominated, having a large lead over Rudolph A. Mack, of Cincinnati, and George W. Shaw, of Cleveland. Former Governor James M. Cox, of Dayton, was nominated for governor by the Democrats by a large majority over A. P. Sandles, of Ottawa, and J. C. Martin, of Greenville.

The successful nominees for lieutenant governor apparently were John H. Arnold, Columbus, Republican, and E. J. Hopple, Cleveland, Democrat.

Early today there still remained doubt as to the nominees for two seats on the supreme court bench. For the two supreme court seats, Cyrus Newby, of Hillsboro, and James Joyce, of Cambridge, apparently were the nominees on the Republican ticket, while indications were that M. H. Donahue, of New Lexington, and James G. Johnson, of Springfield, were the successful Democratic nominees. Haynes M. Adams, of Erie county, was the indicated nominee by the Republicans for state auditor although friends of Joseph T. Tracy, of Portsmouth, had by no means conceded his defeat. Tabulation of returns in many counties was very slow--especially in Franklin county--and it was said that the tabulation of final figures that would settle close contests would be long in forthcoming.

Speculation on the results of the primaries today will be confined on the main to an analysis of the so-called protest vote represented by the vote cast for the opponents of Governor Willis on the Republican ticket and for those of Ex-Governor Cox on the Democratic ticket.

On the basis of the vote, there seemed to be more interest in the Republican than in the Democratic primaries. There were indications that complete returns would show that two Republicans participated in the primary to one Democrat.

On the basis of returns early today Herrick proved to be the preferred candidate both in cities and in the rural districts. He not only swept Cuyahoga, his home county, but carried Hamilton and Lucas counties by large majorities. Montgomery county apparently was the one county containing a large city where Daugherty offered strong opposition to the Cleveland man.

Columbus, O., August 9.--Com-over Hugh Huntington, his nearest unofficial returns indicate that the nomination of Karl T. Web. Clement Brumbaugh, Democrat, for the Twelfth District. The figures give him a lead of 22 votes over his only opponent, L. Boyd.

AIRCRAFT MAKE RAID ON ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND

(BULLETIN)

London, August 9--German airships raided the east coast of England and the southeast coast of Scotland early today, according to an official statement issued by the war office. Three women and a child were killed and fourteen persons injured.

The text of the statement follows: "A hostile airship crossed the east coast of England at an early hour this morning. Another airship is reported to have visited the southeast coast of Scotland. The aviators did not penetrate inland but dropped a number of bombs in various towns near the coast. At several places the ships were engaged by anti-aircraft guns and driven off from the coast. Reports received up to the present show that three women and one child were killed and fourteen persons injured. No damage of military importance is reported."

40 TRAPPED IN MINE

Wilkes Barre, Pa., August 9--Forty workmen were caught in Number Six Colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal company at Inkerman following an explosion of gas shortly after operations began this morning. The body of one miner has been brought out and one injured man was rescued. The fate of the others is not known.

Russians Have Taken 100 Square Miles In Territory From Germans

Petrograd, (Via London, Aug. 9).--The Russians in their advance against the Austro-Germans in East Galicia have taken territory aggregating nearly 100 square miles, according to the official communication issued last night. The Russians have taken additional villages in the Dnieper region.

SENATE PASSES THE CHILD LABOR BILL

Washington, D. C., August 8--The senate late yesterday passed the bill to prevent interstate commerce in products of child labor. The vote was 52 to 12. The measure already passed by the house was brought to a vote in the senate upon the instance of President Wilson after the Democratic senate caucus once had decided to defer its consideration until next December. Senators who voted against the

PREPARE TO LOSE LEMBERG; FRENCH GAIN

London, Aug. 9.--A proclamation foreshadowing the surrender of Lemberg, capital of Galicia, was issued by the governor of the city on August 4, says an Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Bucharest. On the same date, the dispatch adds, the evacuation of the city by the civilian population was ordered.

The proclamation declared the Austrians would return shortly to wrest Lemberg from the Russians.

Paris, Aug. 9.--Notable gains have been made by the French in the Somme battle, according to the official statement issued by the war office last night. In two days they have carried German trenches along a front of more than three miles and a half, to a depth of three hundred to five hundred metres.

In the Verdun sector they have succeeded in regaining a foothold in the Thiaumont work.

Paris, Aug. 9.--The Germans made violent attacks last night on the positions taken by the French north of Henswood on the Somme front, during the last two days. The official French statement of today says these attacks were frustrated. The fighting continues.

On the Verdun front heavy fighting continued during the night for the possession of Thiaumont work. The Germans gained a further footing. The French hold the outskirts of the work. In the village of Fleury the French made some progress.

Vienna, (Via London)--August 9.--The loss of the Gorizia bridgehead to the Italian forces is admitted in the Austrian official statement issued yesterday. A withdrawal to the eastern Isarco, the statement says, was necessary to avoid severe losses to the defenders of the bridgehead because of the desperate attacks made by the Italians.

OPPOSITION TO BIG NAVAL PROGRAM GONE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9--Effective opposition in the house to the senate's big naval building program, including four dreadnaughts and four battle cruisers for 1917, has given way before administration pressure, those favoring the more extensive plan believed today. The test will come next Tuesday when the house votes on senate amendments.

Senator Swenson, ranking Democrat of the senate naval committee, declared after a canvass of the situation all doubt was removed that the house would accede to the large building program, the three year continuing policy and the increased personnel provision.

The house was expected to adopt today the conference committee's report on the army appropriation bill and the measure then will go to the president. The senate approved the report yesterday.

CRISIS IN RAILWAY SITUATION

New York, August 9.--A crisis in the strike situation involving virtually all the railroads of the country and about 400,000 employees is forecast today. Apparently, an avoidance of a strike hinges upon the question whether the national conference committee of railroad managers makes a proposal to the representatives of the four brotherhoods at the joint conference which meets here at 10 o'clock this morning.

A CONTINUING FAILURE

Ohio had another primary Tuesday, with the usual result. A majority of both parties failed to vote and one-fourth of the electorate made most of the principal nominations.

Distinctly, generally, and in quite every test the primary has failed to work the blessings predicted of its inauguration. The bosses have not been overthrown, the people have not swarmed out to exercise the right of making their own choice and the nominees, on the whole, are no improvement over those under the old convention system. In fact, it is much to be questioned if they size up to an equal standard. The primary entails too much personal effort on the part of the candidate, too much work and too much expense where there is anything like a contest. The net result is to make most of the best character and standing chary of entering for office.

Worst of all it seems to be a sort of parody on the boasted principle of popular government, the rule of the majority. In the last case, as we have said about one-fourth of the party voters make the nominations, yet, the masses of the parties accept the vote of that one-fourth as binding and the average partisan will go to the polls next November and vote for the nominees, hugging to himself the delusion that they are the party's choice and they must be loyal to it.

PUTTING ON STYLE

When Billy Sunday goes to Boston next November, on his first chase of the devil around New England, he will be unfamiliar and stylish surroundings, and find, may be, the famous sawdust trail tabooed. Owing to the Hub's stringent building regulations, the erection of the old shackle frame tabernacle is not permitted and in its stead will be a rather imposing concrete and brick auditorium, costing, without the grounds, in the neighborhood of $10,000. It will be comfortable and as well as commodious, and amidst such novel surroundings, buttressed by a culture that accounts bluntness as rudeness, it is going to be interesting to note if the famous Bill will really be himself. It will be safe anyway to lay a small wager that he will, at least, administer a decided shock to Boston's conceit and complacency.

Sharks at Oyster Bay. Surely the man who eats 'em alive is not at home.

Oh well, anyway John Reilly celebrated his return to leadership in the Republican ranks by picking the winner for senator.

There wasn't even a thrill in the primary Tuesday. That is unless you could call the contest between Ben Bratt and Sandy Woodrow for committeeman a thriller. It was the real scrap in the whole county, the only case in which effort was made by the candidates to get out the vote.

One man told us Tuesday that voters were so indifferent that they wouldn't even vote when they were sent for. That's going some.

Judging by the lack of interest displayed in Tuesday's primary we would say that people are tired of this new-fangled instrument of reform and would prefer a return to the old convention system. And it is equally certain that some men who slide through at a primary would never get a "look-in" at a convention, because they have neither the ability nor the standing that would justify their selection.

Now that Mr. Herrick has been nominated we suppose that the local Daugherty bunch will proceed to deftly slip a noose around the neck of the Hon. Aronhold Schapiro and proceed to drown him in the Scioto before the plums are ripe and ready for distribution. We plead with our newest statesman to take counsel with the late William S. Sellards who was the "original Willis man."

The board of health is doing a good work in insisting upon sanitary methods in the conduct of bakeries and other places that furnish food supplies. The board should play no favorites, but should make public its findings in each and every case that the public may know the conditions of bakeries which supply them with bread and cakes, especially if no attention is paid to warnings to clean up and stay clean. Publicity is a good thing to insure cleanliness.

A man by the name of Coffin has given fifty thousand dollars to the Prohibition party. May be he wants to have a bang-up funeral to fit the casket.

Seemingly to fit the situation nature mollified herself a bit, but the vote, well, it could have been larger and then had no occasion to brag of itself.

Seeing the majorities by which Cox and Willis won, it seems queer the other fellows were foolish enough to think they could make a run against them.

The youth who wears a sport shirt under the delusion that the public is interested in his Adam's apple has another guess coming, but his offense will probably be overlooked if he points to the kind of weather we have been having as an extenuating circumstance.—Marion Star.

A BLESSING IN DISGUISE

EVERY LITTLE WILL HELP

We'll have to take back what we said in our first reference to the setting aside of August 24th as "good roads day" for the Scioto Trail. There isn't little to do to improve that part of it lying in Scioto county. Sad to say, there is much. The road, beginning some distance this side of Lucasville, is in a deplorable condition all the way to the Pike county line. It is badly cut up and full of bumps and chasms. Still, at that not a great deal of work is needed to put it in passable condition, not so much that if the adjoining land owners were to put a good day's work there upon material improvement would not be made. So let everybody turn out on the 24th and give his vigorous mite.

HEADACHES—DANGER SIGNALS

A headache is a common although unpopular disorder. Nearly everybody now and then disgraces himself with one. A headache is not a disease in itself. It is just a danger signal announcing shoals nearby. It is usually a sign of some functional disorder, something gone wrong.

Most headaches are preventable. The cause will usually be found if we will sit down and analyze our acts for the last 24 or 36 hours. It will frequently be found to be due to something we have eaten or drunk, causing slight digestive disturbances. Work in close, poorly ventilated rooms, worry, anxiety, eyestrain, and too close mental application are also frequent causes of headache.

If every one would play fair with himself and refuse to treat his headache until he has first made an honest effort to locate the real seat of trouble, and then would remove that cause and resolve to sin no more, there would be fewer drug fiends. To cure a headache do not try the drug route. Beware of the get well quick schemes. They are dangerous, particularly for weak hearts.

After you locate the cause, endeavor to apply the remedy in the opposite direction. If it is indigestion, give your stomach a rest for a meal or two. If it is lack of exercise and ventilation take a walk in the open air. Walk slowly at first and increase your speed a little as the pain subsides. See that your rooms or office are properly ventilated. Do not be satisfied with relieving a headache. Remove the cause.—Salt Lake Telegram.

Frank Craig and Harry Mittendorf are mighty fine fellows and it is too bad they always wind up in the also-ran class.

Carranza urges all Mexican officials to retrenchment and economy and yet, right on the heels of that he burns up 165,000,000 pesos of his own administration. No economy in that because the waste paper was worth more than its money value.

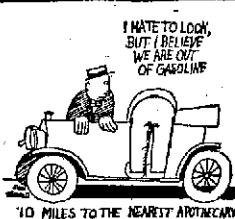

Yes, the women are going to improve our election. They, instead of whiskey, will use candy to get votes.

The Portsmouth, N. H., Times says large signs are going to be put up to facilitate motor traffic. The complaint in these parts is that it is too much facilitated.

Sizing the two up the Columbian State sees it is utterly impossible for Bill Taft to carry out his promise to get entirely behind Charlie Hughes, physically speaking.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

GASOLINE

Gasoline is a liquid which may be put away under the front seat of a motor car with the aid of a funnel and a five dollar bill, and which will animate the motor car several feet without further replenishing, everything else being favorable. At one time it was sold by grocers and was used mainly for cleaning white gloves and encouraging aviation among kitchen maids. To-day it is sold to the nouveau-poor by multi-millionaires at little red fountains along the roadside—at rates that make champagne look as cheap as rain.

Gasoline will lift a man out of the deep, dusty channels that wind among skyscrapers and place him bodily among green fields and clean brooks. This is meant to sound poetic, but it can be interpreted literally by those who like their laugh better than their sob, i.e., many a man has trifled with gasoline and found himself, a few seconds later, sitting in the middle of a wet brook, several miles away, after the fashion of colored Sunday supplement.

Double header to-day. The next essay will be about birds.

BIRDS

Birds know best. (This is pretty far from gasoline.) Here is the world and here are people and here are birds. And birds seem to know. They are up at four o'clock in the morning saying what they know. All day they declare their ideas from the tree-tops. And all day, we (the people part of it) go to college and get an A.B., or this fragment of the alphabet or that, and try to find out as much as birds know, and somehow we can't. We stick our heads into prodigious volumes of fine text and soon have to wear specs, trying to get some information and it isn't there. The information seems to be in the tree-tops—but not down here.

Bed Time Tales

Slippy Likes His Cousin

YOU CAN JUST IMAGINE that Slippy Littlemouse was quite as surprised to see Tommy Littlemouse as Tommy was to see him. It had been so long, long since he had seen or heard of Tommy that it was not much wonder that Slippy thought he must have been killed, or at best must have run far away.

"Well, well, Tommy," said Slippy, when he had recovered from his first surprise. "Do you mean to tell me that this is really you? I had thought you must be dead! And to think I should see you in my own log!"

"Your own log?" asked Tommy, pricking up his two tiny ears till they stood straight and tall. "What do you mean?"

"Just what I say," replied Slippy. "In my own log, you mean," corrected Tommy.

"Yes, in my log," agreed Slippy. "My own."

"I think we are mixed up," said Tommy, with a worried look in his eyes. "This log belongs to Mrs. Tommy and me."

"How can that be," asked Slippy, "when it already belongs to Mrs. Slippy and me?"

Tommy scratched his left hind foot and his right hind foot and then thoughtfully drew his tail through his front paws. "That does seem queer," he said finally. "What shall we do about it?"

Now all the time that Tommy and Slippy had been talking, Mrs. Tommy and Mrs. Slippy, who stood so far behind Slippy that he could hardly be seen, had been looking at each other the best they could in such a crowded place and in such a dim light. And Mrs. Tommy came to the conclusion that Mrs. Slippy was a nice, quiet, home-loving little body who wouldn't want to steal a house at all. Just at the same time, Mrs. Slippy had decided that Mrs. Tommy didn't look very fierce and perhaps after all didn't mean to rob the Littlemouse family of a perfectly good home.

That decided, Mrs. Tommy pulled her front hair into place and remarked, "How long have you good people been living here?"

"To be sure!" cried Tommy. "Why didn't I think to ask? That settles it—how long?"

"A whole week!" said Slippy impressively.

How Tommy did laugh at that! "A whole week! And we've lived here more than a year!"

"But I'll tell you something else," said Mrs. Tommy kindly, when she saw that the new-comers were afraid they might have to move, "this log is really bigger than we need. We hardly ever use this back entrance. Why don't you just stay right here? It's a good home I can tell you! And there's food enough in the garden for all."

So the Littlemouse family settled down for a long stay.

How Tommy did laugh at that! "A whole week! And we've lived here more than a year!"

"But I'll tell you something else," said Mrs. Tommy kindly, when she saw that the new-comers were afraid they might have to move, "this log is really bigger than we need. We hardly ever use this back entrance. Why don't you just stay right here? It's a good home I can tell you! And there's food enough in the garden for all."

So the Littlemouse family settled down for a long stay.

HERRICK SEEMS TO HAVE CARRIED THE COUNTY

GILLILAND LEADS IN THE RACE WITH BEATTY

BULLETIN

Attorney Arnold Schapiro, secretary of the Herrick Voters League, stated Wednesday morning that with six precincts missing, returns indicated that Herrick would carry Scioto county by about 75 votes.

Unofficial returns from all but two precincts in the county indicate that Hon. Myron T. Herrick received a majority of between forty and one hundred votes in Scioto county.

Nate B. Gilliland received a majority of about forty over Judge Thomas C. Beatty for the Republican nomination for probate judge.

Senator W. D. Tremper received a heavy majority over his opponent, J. A. Shriver, for the Republican nomination for state senator.

In the race for governor, Frank B. Willis on the Republican ticket and James Cox on the Democratic ticket each received over ninety-five per cent of the votes cast.

There were many surprises in the unofficial returns to local political leaders. The vote cast shows that only about 2,100 republican votes were cast in the county.

It is generally conceded that Gilbert F. Dodds will receive the republican nomination for county treasurer over his opponent, Harry H. Mittendorf, by a comfortable majority.

In the race for county commissioners, the present board seems to have a fair majority over Frank B. Lair.

In the democratic race for county commissioner, B. Adair, former superintendent of the county infirmary, Daniel Egbert, ex-county commissioner, and George F. Jenkins, appear to be the winners over Burle Burke.

The New Boston school bond issue carried by a good majority, having 86 votes for and 56 against. The bond issue is for $65,000, the proceeds of which are to be used in constructing a new school building.

THE CITY RESULTS

Hon. Myron T. Herrick carried the city over his opponent by 93 votes, according to the unofficial returns received at the Board of Election Tuesday evening. In the race for probate judge Thomas C. Beatty was winner in the city over his opponent, Nate B. Gilliland by thirty-three votes. The vote was 772 to 739. In all 1,432 votes were cast in the city on the Republican ticket.

Dr. W. D. Tremper, candidate for state senator, received a handsome majority over J. A. Shriver, his opponent, having 881 majority in the city. The vote stood 1,132 to 251.

George H. Hill, Thomas W. Watkins and Charles E. Worley received the largest number of votes in the city against their opponent, Frank B. Lair. Hill polled 1,044; Lair, 372; Watkins, 1,048; and Worley, 982.

Frank B. Willis was popular for governor in the city, receiving 1,248 votes to Shaw's 65 and Mack's 119.

In the race for auditor of state, Joseph T. Tracy beat his nearest opponent by 809 votes. The vote was 934 for Tracy; Adams, 140; Braden, 72; Stillwell, 125; Conover, 65; Wise, 50.

Democratic Ticket

On the Democratic ticket in the city, Hon. James M. Cox received 418; Martin, 7; and Sandles, 9.

E. J. Hoppie was popular choice for lieutenant governor, with a vote of 214. Boone got 102; Sutter, 32; Toole, 16.

Thornton R. Snyder lead in the city for secretary of state, with a total of 156.

Joseph McGhee was popular choice here for attorney general, with a vote of 286. Schwenek got 40.

Pomerene won here for United States Senator over Lentz by a vote of 312 to 59.

In the state senatorial race, George A. Schausell received a vote of 171 against Will P. Haynes, who got 154.

Arnold Got Big Vote.

John H. Arnold, received a total vote of 905 in the city while his opponent, A. W. Agler, received 346.

In the Republican race for Judge of the Supreme Court, James Joyce received 661; Cyrus Newby, 324; Joseph G. Obermeyer, 212; Augustus N. Summers, 304; Willis Vickery, 218.

For county treasurer on the Republican ticket, Gilbert F.

Dodds was easily the choice, receiving 963 in the city against Harry H. Mittendorf's 407.

On the Democratic ticket, Maurice H. Donahue received 273 votes and James G. Johnson got 181.

Result In The County

The total vote recorded in seventeen precincts outside of the city shows Dodds for treasurer, receiving 343 and Mittendorf, 210.

The total in the 17 precincts out of the city for commissioner was: George H. Hill, 410; Frank B. Lair, 306; Thomas W. Watkins, 269, and Charles Worley, 342.

The present board of commissioners is composed of: Thomas W. Watkins, Charles Worley and George H. Hill.

Out of 17 precincts in the county the following results were announced unofficially at the Board of Elections Wednesday morning: Hon. Harry M. Daugherty, 270, and Hon. Myron T. Herrick, 256 in the United States Senatorial race on the Republican ticket.

In the state senatorial race on the Republican ticket, Dr. W. D. Tremper shows a total of 394 votes in 17 county precincts against Hon. J. A. Shriver's 119.

In the 17 county precincts reported at the Board of Election Wednesday, Judge Thomas C. Beatty received a total of 287 for judge of probate court while Nate B. Gilliland recorded a vote of 329.

HAYNES LOOKS LIKE WINNER

In Pike county Herman Shy, Democrat, was nominated for representative over several others. L. F. Gehres, Republican, was nominated for the same office by from 30 to 50 over Rev. F. B. Osborne and W. A. Miller.

For state senator, Democratic,

George A. Schausell will carry Pike county by over 400.

In Scioto county there is practically an even break between Haynes and Schausell and Haynes will carry Adams by a small margin. Word from Jackson is that Haynes has at least 500. If true this will nominate him.

MR. SELBY BUYS 50 TICKETS

The police and River City band boys greatly appreciate the liberal act of Mr. George D. Selby in purchasing fifty tickets for the coming match ball game between their teams. The sale of tickets is progressing nicely. Sergeant Jack Leeds to date has sold the largest number, namely 125.

Preparing To Remodel Gallia Street Building

Within the next few days work of remodeling the business room at 829 Gallia street just vacated by E. J. Staebler will be started. As soon as repairs are completed the Bismarck cafe on the west of the empty room will move into the renovated property. John Heer, clothier, has not yet secured a new location but will select a new business room within the next few weeks. Work of razing the buildings to make room for the new Security bank building will proceed as soon as Mr. Heer and the saloon moves.

PLAGUE SPREADS IN OHIO

Columbus, O., August 9.—Infantile paralysis is increasing in Ohio and careful isolation of victims is urged to combat the disease in a warning issued today by the state board of health. The board asks that special care be taken to prevent the spread of the malady during the months of August and September. During July 95 cases were reported throughout the state. Officials estimate the death rate at twenty per cent. The greatest number of cases was reported from Toledo where 33 victims had been attacked. Cleveland was next with 11 cases and Cincinnati and Columbus had six each. Akron reports two cases and Lima 3.

WHEAT UP 8 CENTS

Chicago, August 9.—Wheat prices shot upward eight cents a bushel today at the opening of the wheat market. The December option touched $1.45 on first trading as against $1.37 at yesterday's finish.

Sensational crop damage confirmed by the government report was the cause of the extraordinary advance.

PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN DEAD

St. Paul, Minn., August 9.—A. B. Stickney, founder of the Chicago Great Western Railroad, died at his home here this morning, after an illness of four weeks. He had been declining in health for several years.

Destiny. "Yes, John will go to Yarnell. The arrangements are practically completed. His room will be No. 12 East Middle Street hall. We were down to look at it last fall. It has sunlight on three sides and the most beautiful view you ever saw. He will belong to the Slappa Kid fraternity—his father's, you know—and play football on the football team, of course. After graduation he is to enter the diplomatic service, he is going as secretary to the legation at Paris. We decided on all these things long ago."—Life.

THE WINNERS IN THE FIGHT FOR NOMINATION OF U. S. SENATOR

ATLEE POMERENE
The Democratic Candidate For United States Senator.

MYRON T. HERRICK
Candidate For United States Senator On the Republican Ticket.

TREMPER IS BIG WINNER

The attempt of J. A. Schriver of Manchester, to defeat Senator W. D. Tremper, of this city, for re-nomination as State Senator from the Seventh district, on the republican ticket, was a disastrous failure, Tremper being re-nominated by a much larger majority than he received in his first race against Schriver.

Incomplete returns indicate that Senator Tremper carries Scioto county by from 1,400 to 1,600.

He will carry Pike and Jackson counties by safe and substantial majorities, according to word received by The Times. Two years ago Tremper lost both of these counties.

In Adams, the home of Mr. Schriver, he is conceded to have carried the county, but his majority will be small. Two years ago he had about 1,000 majority, but this time he will not have over 400 or 500.

Complete returns were not available at 10 o'clock but Tremper will certainly have 2,000 majority in the district.

Much interest was manifested in the democratic contest for the nomination for congressman in the Sixth district, there being three candidates and an active campaign made by each of the candidates.

Word received by The Times up to 10 o'clock indicate that Hon. A. G. Turnipseed, of West Union, Adams county, had swept the district, and would be nominated by a large majority. Hon. W. F. Roubush, of Batavia, ran second, and Hon. E. B. Stivers, of Macon, Brown county, ran third.

In a telephone conversation with The Times Wednesday morning Mr. Turnipseed stated that his information was that he had carried every county in the district, excepting Brown which Stivers carried by about 200.

In Adams county Mr. Turnipseed had over 400 majority with five precincts out.

He carried Pike by a very large majority, Scioto by a small majority.

In Clermont no figures were available, but it was stated by the Batavia Sun that Turnipseed had carried the county over Mr. Roubush, his nearest opponent.

Meagre returns from Highland indicated Turnipseed had carried the county, according to Judge O. H. Hughes.

Mr. Turnipseed said he was grateful to his friends throughout the district. He expects to make a vigorous campaign and he hopes that all democrats, regardless of their primary beliefs, would rally to his support.

KOHORTS TO PARADE

The Korn Karnival Kohorts will parade this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Be on the lookout for them, and watch the cannon shoot.

The Kohorts in their nobby uniforms will assemble at Korn Karnival headquarters in Masonic Temple at 7 o'clock and the parade over the principal streets will start at 7:30.

All Kohorts are urged to be on hand promptly.

HERRICK CARRIES LAWRENCE COUNTY: JOHNSONITES LOSE

Arnold Schapiro received a fight. Egerton seems to be very much to the good in the county survivor's fight. These are about the only offices that the Johnson faction claim. It seemed to be a landslide for the anti-Johnson crowd. The commissioner's office is in doubt.

"According to the democratic returns received from eleven precincts early this morning Cox's vote was estimated at 118, in the gubernatorial contest. Martin secured only five votes and Sandles but four in the eleven precincts. Their vote will be negligible.

"Pomerene's total for the senatorial nomination was 92, while Lentz secured but 26 of the votes.

"Charles Hutchinson seems to be an easy winner in the sheriff's contest."

Flyer Delayed

C. & O. Flyer No. 2 was over an hour late, reaching South Portsmouth from Cincinnati, Tuesday afternoon, due to engine trouble. Just as the train was approaching Dover the engine blew out a cylinder head. The engine by "running to one side" managed to get to Vanceburg, Ky., where it was met by another engine, which was hurried down from Russell, Ky.

BOY RUN DOWN BY AUTO TRUCK

An accident to his young son Monday, and the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Osborne, of No. 205 Front street, this city, has caused John H. Osborne, of Cincinnati, a former Portsmouth man, to postpone his intended removal to San Francisco until some time in September.

The Cincinnati Enquirer had the following account of the accident which befell the Osborne boy:

"John Osborne, 8 years old, 27 East Court street, was run down by an auto truck in front of the billiard hall of Robert Welsh, 1011 Vine street, yesterday afternoon, but, despite internal injuries, managed, with the aid of eye-witnesses, to reach his home.

"The boy was crossing the street, when he noticed a car approaching.

He got out of the way of the car, but inadvertently stepped in front of the auto truck and was hurled to the pavement, a front wheel passing over his abdomen. He was carried into a drugstore. Whimpering a little, but plucky, he insisted on being taken to his home.

"Physicians of the Osborne family were unable to determine last night the extent of the boy's injuries, but he was suffering great pain. According to witnesses of the accident, the driver of the auto truck, which is owned by Lloyd Bros., wholesale druggists, made heroic efforts to avoid running down the boy."

The Cincinnati Times-Star published a fine picture of the plucky lad, showing him in his rompers. Despite his injuries, he insisted upon being taken to his home.

"The boy was crossing the street, when he noticed a car approaching.

Because Nora Grant and Martha Holloway, street walkers, wore their "glad rags" in accompanying Police Chief Henry Clark to Cincinnati Tuesday, caused them to be mistaken for visitors upon their arrival at the workhouse.

Supt. Fred Bader happened to be at the entrance to the workhouse when the chief arrived with the two young women. He promptly called the matron having charge of the female department. She prepared to show the young women about the building, and great was her surprise when Bader halted her telling her the girls were to be incarcerated. The girls are rather good looking and were dressed better than the average women received at the institution.
